Obituary

Julia Lampton Stansberry, widow of Reginald Stansberry, died February 2, 2002 at Southwest Regional Medical Center, McComb, Mississippi.

Born December 29, 1907 in Magnolia (Pike County) Mississippi, she was the daughter of the late Mack and Elizabeth Bickham Lampton. She attended school in the state of Louisiana. After graduating she taught school in the state for a number of years until moving to Los Angeles, California during World War II.

Julia was united with the Macedonia Church of Hammond, Louisiana in 1927. After making Los Angeles her home, she united with the Mount Sinai Missionary Baptist Church and remained an active member until she returned to Mississippi where she united with Walker's Chapel Free Will Baptist Church of McComb, Mississippi.

She is survived by a daughter, Clara of Los Angeles, a son Larry of McComb, Mississippi, nine grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

She was preceded in death by two sons, John and Reginald, Jr.; one daughter, Lilly, five brothers, Willis, Charles, Leaser, Bickham and Claude; four sisters, Maxie, Nola, Rovilla and Georgia.

A Tribute From The Children _____

*We know you had to go, dear Mother.
It's sad to miss your face, the world is full of loved ones,
but none can take your place.*

From Mother _____

*Dear Family,
I've only moved away
When my life on earth is over
And my body is cold and still
Do not grieve because I left you
Just remember it was God's will
And my suffering will be over
Every trial and every test
When God has called and I have answered,
Don't weep for I'll be at rest.
Only ask yourself this question
"Am I ready to meet her there?"
Where there'll be no separation
In heaven so bright and fair.
When you pass to view my body
Remember it's just a house of clay
Jesus has built for me a mansion
And I've only moved away.*

I love you,

Julia
