Celebrating the Life of Mrs. Luvivia Pruitt

Reflections
of Her Life from the Word of God

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want He maketh me to lie down in green pastures. He leads me beside the still waters; he restoreth my soul; He leads me in the path of righteousness for His name sake. yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for thou art with me. Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thy preparast a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thy anointest my head with oil. My cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

...my eyes,
my child, follow me to the Heavenly skies".
...you were suffering and that you were in much pain,
...your broken body would never heal on earth again.
...roads were getting rough
...were hard to climb,
...our weary eyelids and whispered, "Peace Be Thine."
...did not go alone
...went with you
...ly journey Home.

Well, what can I say. I never thought that this time would have come for you to leave us. I know the Doctor and Nurses told us that it wouldn't be long, but I didn't expect that Thursday when you told me not to leave, that Friday you would be gone. I wish I would have stayed, but one thing I won't forget. When I got ready to go, you said, "I love you, a bushes and a peck and a hug around the neck". I will miss you telling us those stories and rhymes. I will miss riding, reading a Bible verse, doing your hair and nails, and me laughing when you say "what's so funny, Bugs Bunny" and when you were feeling down and I would say, "what's the matter", and you would say, "it more than matter than you can scatter from here to Cincinnati" and when some of the family members come around you would say, "my neoply people, oh my people". I will miss all those good things and most of all I'll miss you. There will always be a place for you in my heart no matter what. I love you a bush and a peck and a hug around the neck. I know I did my part so I will not be sad, I will rejoice.

We never thought you would leave so soon but you stayed strong. Many people gave up on you but I stood by your side so many days. You argued with me but through thick and thin you loved us and we loved you. Many days you talked about Chris but if it came down to it you wouldn't let anybody bother Chris. He treated you like you were my grandma. You accepted me like your own flesh and blood. I will truly miss you and 'I love you a bush and a peck and a hug around the neck'.

Love, Christopher and Gabrielle

Whether it was that look, touch or smile
Or kind word you may have said;
Whether it was that story or article

That made you special to me
I'll always remember you For the love, the joy, the peace
That you brought to my life

For the times we shared
The laughter, the tears, the pain
The joy, the love, the peace
That you brought to my life

The laughter, the tears, the pain
The joy, the love, the peace
