Obituary

Roberta Cole was born on January 31, 1889 in Bay Spring, Mississippi to Ollie and George Simpson. She was the youngest of ten children.

She confessed hope in Christ at the age of nine and was a member of New Fellowship Baptist Church in Enterprise, Mississippi.

Roberta was united in matrimony to James Cole on January 9, 1905. To this union ten children were born, six boys and four girls.

Roberta left Mississippi in 1952 and moved to Milwaukee, Wisconsin and there she was a member of St. Mary.

Roberta later moved to Chicago, where she joined Greater Revelation M. B. Church. She was a faithful member on the Mother Board, until her illness. She departed this life and passed on to eternal life Thursday, June 4, 1992.

Roberta leaves to cherish her with fond memories: her loving four daughters, Terri Chambliss,³ Elma Chambliss of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Gracye Evans and Lula Cotton of Chicago; five sons, Frank Cole of Indianapolis, Indiana, James Cole of Phoenix, Illinois, Samuel Cole of Chicago, Otis and George Cole (deceased); 28 grandchildren, twenty one great-grandchildren; twenty seven great-great-grandchildren; thirty three great-great-great-grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephew and friends.

Memories

A million times we will miss you, a million times we will cry. If love alone would have kept you, never, never would you have died. In life we loved you dearly, In death we love you still, In my heart you hold a place no one else can fill, The Golden Gates stood open, God saw you needed rest. God is pleased, His harvest is abundant, for He picked the best.
